ORDER

Sub: Duties & Responsibilities of the General Observer appointed by the Commission.

Whereas the superintendence, direction and control of elections to the local bodies is vested in the State Election Commission as per Article 243K of constitution of India read with Section 237 of Goa Panchayat Raj Act, 1994;

And also whereas keeping in view the necessity to hold the elections in a free, fair, transparent and peaceful manner, the State Election Commission in exercise of powers vested in it as aforesaid, appoints the senior officers of the Government as General Observers during the election period to oversee the conduct of election process in the field on its behalf;

And therefore, keeping the above objectives in view, the Commission issues the general guidelines for the conduct of business by the General Observers as follows:

1. The General Observers are required to generally act as the eyes and ears of the Commission as also their representatives in field who are charged with the prime responsibility of ensuring that the elections in the ward/ constituency assigned to them are conducted in a free, fair and transparent manner.
2. They are supposed to observe the compliance of legal provisions and instructions issued by the Commission from time to time , by all concerned including the candidates / political parties and most importantly, the Returning Officer concerned and to point out to the RO and the Commission, the discrepancies noticed , if any. But under no circumstances, they will issue any directions to the RO concerned for compliance.
3. The Observer shall take charge of his duties immediately after receipt of the appointment order and send a joining report to the Commission immediately thereafter.

Contd..

- ii. Second report GO-02 – Immediately after the end of campaign period.
 - iii. Third report GO-03 – On the day of poll immediately after the sealing of strong room.
 - iv. Fourth report GO-04 – On the day of counting immediately after the declaration of result.
 - g) The Observer will have to submit to the State Election Commission immediately after the last day of counting of votes, a brief note containing his observations at the time of election and counting along with his suggestions, if any.
7. The Observer shall use his own department's official vehicle along with the driver.
 8. The respective HOD under whom the observer is working shall provide him a vehicle and a driver with adequate quantity of petrol for undertaking travel to the office of the concerned RO for reporting purpose.
 9. The Observer shall carry out any other duties as may be assigned to him by the Commission during the conduct of election process.

It shall be the responsibility of the concerned Returning Officer to provide adequate security and support services such as fuel, stationery etc. and a place of work to the Observer.
