

GOA STATE ELECTION COMMISSION ALTINHO, PANAJI-GOA.

No. 1/199/ Standing orders /2020-SEC/1244 Dated: 30 /10/2020

ORDER

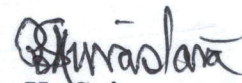

Sub: Payment of allowance to the police personnel deployed on election duty.

The police personnel are deployed by the Law enforcement agency on the Poll day, Pre-poll day and the Counting day during the conduct of election process. The matter regarding payment of allowances to the police personnel deployed on election duty has been engaging attention of the Commission for quite some time. It is, therefore, considered necessary to streamline the whole system of payment in this regard.

The Commission accordingly issues the following directions for payment of election allowances to the police personnel deployed on different types of duties during the elections:

1. The payments to be made by the RO: For deployment on the counting day inside the counting hall; for guarding the strong room, and for duties with the flying squads, General Observers and Sector Officers.
2. The payments to be made by the ARO: Deployment for accompanying the polling parties including guarding of polling booths.
3. The payments to be made by the Police Department: Deployment for maintaining the law and order on Pre-poll day, Poll day and the Counting day; office expenses / miscellaneous expenses and the district election cell of the Police department.

These orders are issued by the Commission in exercise of its plenary powers vested in it and for compliance by all concerned accordingly.
